Tuition Assistance Application

2020-21 Season

PYC is committed to ensuring all students who are placed in an ensemble are able to participate; therefore, we offer generous Tuition Assistance for families with a combined household income up to $120,000.

Please email your responses to executive director Lee Saville-Iksic (lee@pittsburghyouthchorus.org) no later than 15 days after you receive the official acceptance confirmation email from our Chorus Manager.

STUDENT NAME: ____________________________________________________________

Income – Please mark your combined household income range (please include all salaries, wages, tips, and other income including income from investments):

- $100,001 - $120,000
- $85,001 - $100,000
- $70,001 - $85,000
- $55,001 - $70,000
- $45,001 - $55,000
- $35,001 - $45,000
- $25,001 - $35,000
- $25,000 and below

Dependents – Please mark the number of dependents in your household (please include all dependents you would claim on your tax forms, including children in college and elderly family members living in your home):

- 1 or 2
- 3 or 4
- 5 or more

Monthly Payments – As a general rule, PYC requires all tuition payments to be made prior to the December performance. Families applying for Tuition Assistance are generally expected to make four equal monthly installments, September through December. However, families with extenuating circumstances may request other payment options.

In the space below, please provide information you would like to be considered regarding your family’s monthly payments, including a request to spread tuition over more months and/or the maximum amount per month your family, in good faith, could afford on PYC tuition. If you have no other information to share, respond “N/A”.

Personal Statement – Please provide a brief statement below of your interest in our programs. Include why the program(s) you’re interested in are important to you and your family. Also, please feel free to share any additional income related to your family’s financial status that you would like to be considered as a part of your application.

Singer’s Statement – In the singer’s own words, please provide a response to the following: Why is singing (either in PYC or in general) important to you? What do you enjoy about singing?
